- (6) Commendation of nursing research manuscripts
- (7) Facilitating international research cooperation
- (8) Conducting social activities to contribute to people's health and welfare
- (9) Other activities deemed necessary to achieve the Academy's purposes

2 The activities in Article 3.1 shall be conducted throughout Japan and overseas.

(Office)

Article 4

The Academy shall maintain its Office in Chiyoda-ku Tokyo, Japan.

2 However, upon a resolution passed by the Board of Directors, the Office of the Academy may be shifted to any location required.

(Means of notification)

Article 5

Announcements issued by the Academy shall be published by electronic announcement.

Chapter 2. Total Capital

(Total capital)

Article 6

The total capital shall be entrusted to the Academy.

(Soliciting of capital and rights of contributors of funds)

Article 7

The Academy is allowed to advertise for a party to collect funds.

2 The procedure for advertising for funds etc. shall be decided by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

3 In accordance with the provisions of the agreement with contributors of funds, the Academy must return to the contributors of funds an amount equivalent to the value of the assets provided. However, this amount shall not exceed the return limit amount for the end of each fiscal year, and shall not exceed the capital amount provided.

4 Until liquidation of the Academy, capital entrusted to the Academy shall not be returned unless a resolution to that effect is approved by the Councilors meeting.

5 Bonds relating to return of capital shall not incur payment of interest.

(Procedures for returning funds)

Article 8

Funds shall be returned to a contributor after a resolution on the total amount of funds to be returned has been adopted by the Board of Directors, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors meeting.

2 When capital is to be returned, capital equivalent to the amount of capital to be returned shall be appropriated as substitute capital, and the substitute capital shall not be used.

Chapter 3. Members

(Membership categories)

Article 9

The membership of the Academy shall be as follows.

(1) Regular members

(2) Student members

(3) Supporting members

(4) Honorary members

(Regular members)

Article 10

A regular member is a person who agrees with and supports the purposes of the Academy, who conducts research in nursing science, and who has been approved by the Board of Directors in accordance with the standard prescribed by the Councilors meeting.

2 A regular member may attend the General Assembly.

3 A regular member may participate in the Academic Conference, contribute an article to the Journals, and receive copies of the Journals.

4 In accordance with the rights of Councilors listed below as prescribed in the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations (2006 Act No. 48, hereafter the 'Associations and Foundations Act '), regular members of the Academy may participate in the Academy with the same rights as Councilors of the Academy.

(1) The rights prescribed in the Associations and Foundations Act Article 14.2 (Right to view the Constitution, etc.)

(2) The rights prescribed in the Associations and Foundations Act Article 32.2 (Right to view the list of Councilors, etc.)

(3) The rights prescribed in the Associations and Foundations Act Article 57.4 (Right to view the minutes of the Councilors meeting)

(8) The rights prescribed in the Associations and Foundations Act Article 246.3, Article 250.3 and Article 256.3 (Right to view the contract of merger, etc.)

(Student Members)

Article 10.2

Student members are those who agree with the Academy's objectives and have been approved by the Board of Directors based on the criteria established by the General Assembly of Members. However, this does not prevent them from becoming regular members.

2 Student members can attend academic conferences, view academic journals and guidelines, and participate in seminars hosted by the Academy.

(Supporting members)

Article 11

A supporting member is an individual or organization who agrees with the purposes of the Academy and who is approved by the Board of Directors in accordance with the standard prescribed by the Councilors meeting.

(Honorary members)

Article 12

Persons who have given an outstanding contribution to the development of nursing science may be approved for honorary membership by the Board of Directors and the Councilors meeting.

2 An honorary member may attend the Councilors meeting to state his or her views.

3 The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is required to report approval of honorary membership described in Article 12.1 to the General Assembly.

(Admittance to the Academy)

Article 13

A person who wishes to join the Academy as a regular member, a student member or a supporting member (hereafter referred to as "members") must submit a complete membership application form for entry to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors and receive the approval of the Board of Directors in accordance with the standard prescribed by the Councilors meeting.

(Obligations)

Article 14

A member must pay the membership dues set by the Councilors meeting.

2 Irrespective of Article 14.1, an honorary member is not required to pay the membership dues.

3 Paid membership dues shall not be refunded for any reason.

(Termination of membership)

Article 15

A member shall lose membership in the Academy in case of the following:

- (1) Withdrawal from the Academy in accordance with Article 16.
- (2) Failure to pay membership dues within one year after the membership invoice date.
- (3) When a person dies, is declared missing, or the organization is disbanded.
- (4) Expulsion from membership for cause in accordance with Article 17.
- (5) When a student member graduates, completes their degrees, or withdraws from school
- (6) For other reasons specified by ordinance.

(Withdrawal from the Academy)

Article 16

A member who wishes to withdraw from the Academy must submit a notice of withdrawal to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.

(Expulsion)

Article 17

If a member damages the reputation of the Academy or does not comply with the purposes of the Academy, the applicable member may be expelled from the Academy after a resolution of the Councilors meeting to that effect.

2 If expulsion of a member is proposed in accordance with Article 17.1, the applicable member must be notified at least one week before the applicable Councilors meeting, and be given the right of appeal at the Councilors meeting.

3 If a member is expelled, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall notify the expelled member.

Chapter 4. Councilors and Councilors Meeting

(Councilors)

Article 18

The Academy's Councilors shall be represented by elected Councilors.

2 In order to elect Councilors, Councilors election shall be conducted by regular members according to the regulations separately determined by the Board of Directors.

3 Councilors shall be elected from among regular members. In the Councilors election mentioned in Article 18.2 above, each regular member has an equal right as other regular members to elect a Councilor, and has a right to be elected as a Councilor.

4 Councilors shall be elected for each zone specified by the Board of Directors, and the quota of Councilors for each zone shall be set as follows.

(1) Councilors shall be elected from among regular members at a ratio of one Councilor per 30 regular members.

(2) If the number of regular members per zone exceeds 30 members, one Councilor shall be elected for each 30 regular members, and the remaining number of members shall be rounded down if 15 members or less, but if the number of members is 16 members or more, the number of Councilors shall be increased by one.

5 A Director or the Board of Directors is not able to select a Councilor.

6 The Councilor election described in Article 18.2 shall be conducted once every 4 years, between January to April.

(Terms of office)

Article 19

Councilors shall remain in office until the completion of the Councilors election conducted four years after their election, and re-election is permitted. They may not, however, serve consecutively for more than two terms.

2 Regardless of Article 19.1, if a Councilor proposes a resolution protesting against a Councilors meeting resolution, seeks dissolution, pursues liability, or seeks dismissal of a Director or Auditor (Associations and Foundations Act, Article 266.1, Article 268, Article 278, or Article 284) (including when proposing items prescribed in Associations and Foundations Act, Article 278.1), the applicable Councilor shall not lose his or her position as Councilor until the protest is resolved. In this case, the applicable Councilor shall not have a vote in election or deposing of Directors or Auditors (hereinafter Officers) (Associations and Foundations Act, Article 63 and Article 70), and concerning changes to the Academy's Constitution (Associations and Foundations Act, Article 146).

3 When a Councilor's position becomes vacant due to resignation, death or other reason, the person who had the next highest number of votes after those elected in the Councilors election immediately preceding the applicable vacancy will substitute in the vacated Councilor's position.

4 The term of the substitute Councilor specified in Article 19.3 shall be until the end of the term of the Councilor who resigned before the end of their term.

(Councilors meeting)

Article 20

The Councilors meeting shall be composed of Councilors.

2 The Academy shall hold an ordinary Councilors meeting once every year within three months of the day following the final day of the fiscal year. If the Board of Directors recognizes it as necessary, an extraordinary Councilors meeting shall be convened.

(Authority)

Article 21

The Councilors meeting shall vote on the following matters.

- (1) Standards of admittance to the Academy and membership dues amount for members
- (2) Approval of honorary members
- (3) Expulsion of members
- (4) Selection and dismissal of Officers
- (5) Remuneration amount for Officers and provision standards for remuneration of Officers
- (6) Approval of statement documents and asset statements
- (7) Revision of the Constitution
- (8) Dissolution and disposal of remaining assets
- (9) Other matters specified by this Constitution and by law as resolutions of the Councilors meeting.

(Convocation)

Article 22

The Councilors meeting shall be convened by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors in accordance with a resolution by the Board of Directors, except when otherwise prescribed by law.

2 A Councilor who has one-fifth of votes of all Councilors can demand that the Chairperson of the Board of Directors convenes a Councilors meeting, indicating the items that are the reasons for the Councilor's meeting and the reasons for convening it.

3 The Chairperson of the Councilors meeting shall be the Chairperson of the Board of Directors. However, if the Chairperson of the Board of Directors is absent or incapacitated, the Vice-chairperson shall occupy the position of Chairperson of the Councilors meeting.

(Means of adopting resolutions, and voting rights)

Article 23

Resolutions of the Councilors meeting shall be determined by a simple majority of the Councilors in attendance. The quorum for the Councilors meeting is at least a simple majority of the total number of Councilors.

2 Each Councilor shall have one vote when voting at the Councilors meeting.

3 Irrespective of Article 23.1, the following resolutions require a quorum of half or more of all Councilors, and approval by two-thirds or more of votes from all Councilors.

- (1) Expulsion of members
- (2) Dismissal of an Auditor
- (3) Amendments to the Constitution
- (4) Dissolution
- (5) Other matters specified by law

4 Approval of a motion for selection of a Director or an Auditor requires the approval of a motion in accordance with Article 23.1 for each candidate separately.

(Resolution by written vote, etc.)

Article 24

By submitting to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, a proxy notification or other document as proof of delegation of voting right, a Councilor may assign their voting right to another Councilor. In this case, the Councilor who has delegated their vote shall be regarded as having attended the Councilors meeting in accordance with Article 23.

2 When the Board of Directors decides that Councilors not attending the Councilors meeting can delegate their vote in writing or by electronic methods, Councilors who are not able to attend the Councilors meeting may exercise their vote in writing or by electronic methods. In this case, the number of applicable votes shall be included in the number of votes exercised by attending Councilors.

(Minutes)

Article 25

Minutes of the Representatives meeting shall be produced.

2 The Chairperson and at least two persons appointed as minutes-secretary during the Councilors meeting must sign and affix their seal for confirmation of the minutes specified in Article 25.1.

Chapter 5. Officers and Board of Directors

(Appointment of Officers)

Article 26

The Academy shall have the following officers.

- (1) Directors : Not more than fifteen
- (2) Auditors : Not more than two

2 From among the Directors, one person shall be appointed Chairperson.

3 From among the Directors other than the Chairperson, one person shall be appointed Vice-chairperson.

4 The Chairperson of the Board of Directors in Article 26.2 shall be the representative Chairperson in accordance with the Associations and Foundations Act.

(Selection of officers)

Article 27

The officers of the Academy shall be elected by voting at the Councilors meeting.

2 The Chairperson and Vice-chairperson of the Board of Directors shall be selected from among the Directors by voting by the Board of Directors.

3 An Auditor cannot also serve at the same time as a Director of this Academy or its subsidiary company or as an Office staff.

4 No more than one-third of all Director positions is allowed to be occupied by a single Director and related parties of that Director, such as the Director's spouse, family relative within three degrees of kinship, or other extraordinary relationship. The same rule applies to Auditors.

5 The total number of Directors who also serve as Director or Office staff of a similar organization (excluding Public Interest Corporations) or in a similar mutually close relationship to the Academy must not exceed one-third of all Director positions. The same rule applies to Auditors.

6 Each Director shall not have any special interest with any Auditor (or with each Auditor if there are two or more Auditors).

(Term of office)

Article 28

Directors shall remain in office until the completion of the ordinary Councilors meeting for the fiscal year ending two years after their election.

Reappointment of Directors is permitted. They may not, however, serve consecutively for more than three terms.

2 Auditors shall remain in office until the completion of the ordinary Councilors meeting for the fiscal year ending four years after their election.

Reappointment of Auditors is permitted. They may not, however, serve consecutively for more than two terms.

3 Irrespective of Article 28.2, the term of office for a Director or Auditor appointed as a replacement for a Director or Auditor resigning from their position before the expiry of their term of office shall be for the remaining term of the vacated position.

4 If the number of Directors or Auditors falls below the quota specified in Article 26, even after their retirement from office due to expiry of term of office or resignation, the retired Director or Auditor shall retain the rights and obligations of Director or Auditor until their newly appointed replacement assumes their duties.

(Duties of Officers)

Article 29

The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall have overall control of the Academy's activities as a representative director, and shall represent the Academy.

2 The Directors shall form the Board of Directors and administer the Academy's official duties.

3 The Auditors will audit the implementation of the duties of the Directors, and produce and audit report in accordance with the law. An Auditor can at any time demand an activities report from a Director or Office staff, and investigate the business and assets of the Academy.

4 The Chairperson of the Board of Directors must report to the Board of Directors the status of duties performed by the Chairperson, at least twice each fiscal year at an interval at least 4 months apart.

(Dismissal of Officers)

Article 30

Employment of an Officer can be terminated by approval of a resolution to that effect at the Councilors meeting.

(Remuneration, etc.)

Article 31

Officers receive no remuneration

2 Irrespective of Article 31.1, Officers may be repaid for necessary expenses incurred in pursuit of their responsibilities as an Officer.

(Damages Compensation Liability)

Article 32

In accordance with Article 112 of the Associations and Foundations Act, damages compensation liability shall apply to Councilors as Regular members.

2 According to Article 114, Item 1 of the Associations and Foundations Act, the Academy may, by a resolution of the Board of Directors, exempt a Director or an Auditor (including former Directors or Auditors) from liability for damages arising from their failure to perform their duties, to the extent permitted by laws and regulations.

3 According to Article 115, Item 1 of the Associations and Foundations Act, the Academy may enter into a contract with non-executive directors, etc., to limit their liability for damages arising from failure to perform their duties. However, the limit of such liability shall be the minimum amount provided for in Article 113, Item 1 of the said Act.

(Composition of Board of Directors)

Article 33

The Academy shall be governed by the Board of Directors.

2 The Board of Directors shall comprise all Directors.

3 The Auditors may attend the Board of Directors meetings and express their opinions.

(Convocation)

Article 34

The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors at least four times each fiscal year.

2 A Director other than the Chairperson can indicate an item that is the purpose for a meeting, and request the Chairperson to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors.

3 When applicable under the Associations and Foundations Act Article 101.2, an Auditor may request the Chairperson of the Board of Directors to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors.

4 If within five days from the day that the Chairperson receives the request in accordance with Article 34.3 to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors, notice is not received of the convening of a meeting of the Board of Directors on a day within two weeks of the day the request was made, the Director or Auditor who made the request may convene a meeting of the Board of Directors.

5 The meeting of the Board of Directors shall be chaired by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors. However, in cases where the Chairperson is absent or has had an accident, the Vice-chairperson shall act for the Chairperson.

6 Each Director and Auditor must be sent notification at least one week in advance of the day on which the Board of Directors meeting is to be convened.

(Authority of the Board of Directors)

Article 35

The Board of Directors shall perform the following duties in addition to the matters prescribed separately by law and in this Constitution.

- (1) Decide the date, location and matters to be listed on the agenda for the Councilors meeting and the General Assembly.
- (2) In addition to matters in the preceding item, decide other matters deemed necessary to manage the Academy's operations.
- (3) Supervision of implementation of the duties of the Directors.
- (4) Election and dismissal of the Chairperson and Vice-chairperson.

2 The Board of Directors cannot delegate to Directors decisions about the following items and other important business operations.

- (1) Disposal and acceptance of important assets.
- (2) High value loans
- (3) Selection and dismissal of important Office staff.
- (4) Establishment, changes and abolition of the Academy office and other important organizational aspects.

(Resolution)

Article 36

Motions of the Board of Directors must be attended by a majority of Directors excluding those Directors who have a special connection of advantage or loss regarding the particular agenda item at the Board meeting, and that majority shall vote on that issue.

2 Irrespective of Article 36.1, if a Director has proposed an agenda item for a Board meeting, when all Directors who are qualified to vote on that item have indicated agreement in writing or by electronic record, it shall be deemed that the Board has voted to adopt the proposal. However, if the Auditor states an objection to the proposal, this does not apply.

(Conditions for omitting report to Board of Directors)

Article 37

When a Director or Auditor has notified all the Directors and Auditors about an item that should be reported to the Board of Directors, it is not required to report that item to the Board of Directors.

2 Article 37.1 does not apply concerning reports specified in Article 29.4.

(Minutes of Board meetings)

Article 38

The minutes of the Board of the Directors meeting shall be recorded by the Chairperson of the meeting and must be signed and stamped by a designated Director and an Auditor who attended the meeting, and then retained.

2 Irrespective of Article 38.1, if the minutes of the Board of the Directors meeting concerned a change of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, it shall be signed and stamped by other Directors who attended the meeting.
